Objective:

To commemorate World Scout Scarf Day, honouring the values and identity of Scouting while promoting unity, creativity, knowledge, and service among students.

Participants:

A total of 24 members from the Rovers and Rangers Unit participated in the activity, including both Rovers and Rangers along with the Chairperson.

❖ Program Highlights:

- Opening Ceremony:

Formal welcome and introduction about the importance of World Scout Scarf Day and its symbolism in Scouting.

- Scarf Pride Walk:

Rovers and Rangers proudly wore their scarves and participated in a unity walk across the campus, reflecting pride and brotherhood.

- Presentation & Awareness Talk:

A short presentation explained the global significance of the Scout Scarf and how it reflects duty towards God, Others, and Self.

- 🎨 Poster Making Competition:

Participants created visually appealing posters on the theme "Unity Through Scouting" showcasing Scouting ideals.

- ✍️ Slogan Writing Activity:

Creative slogans like "Scarf On, Spirit On" and "Once a Scout, always a Scout" reflected enthusiasm and pride in Scouting.

- Quiz Competition:

A fun and engaging Scout-themed Quiz tested participants' knowledge about Scouting history, knots (Friendship Knot & Good Turn Knot), World Scouting, and Scout Laws. Winners were awarded recognition certificates for their excellent performance.

- Cleanliness & Plantation Drive:

- Cleanliness Drive: Rovers and Rangers cleaned designated areas of the campus, removing litter and dry leaves, creating a clean and eco-friendly environment.

- Plantation Drive: Participants planted saplings around the campus, reinforcing Scouting's commitment to nature conservation and sustainability.

- Experience Sharing:

Senior Rovers & Rangers shared personal Scouting experiences, emphasizing discipline, teamwork, and service.

- Chairperson's Address:

The Chairperson praised the Rover & Ranger Unit for their active participation and highlighted how Scouting shapes future leaders.

- Group Photograph:

The event ended with a vibrant group photograph, all participants proudly wearing their scarves and displaying unity.

- Outcome of the Event:

The celebration successfully:

- Promoted pride in Scouting traditions through Scarf Day activities.
- Strengthened knowledge and creativity via Quiz, Posters, and Slogans.
- Fostered service and environmental awareness through Cleanliness & Plantation Drives.
- Built team spirit and leadership among Rovers and Rangers.

This multifaceted event reflected the true spirit of Scouting – Unity, Service, and Responsibility towards Nature.
