Date: 4th–8th September 2026

Venue: State Training Centre, Rewalsar, Himachal Pradesh

The College Rovers and Rangers Unit of Government College Hamirpur participated in the Nipun Training Camp organised at the State Training Centre, Rewalsar, from 4th to 8th September 2026. Two Rovers from the unit attended the camp.

During the five-day camp, the participants took part in various scouting activities, practical sessions and training exercises aimed at enhancing their scouting knowledge, leadership abilities, discipline and practical skills.

The camp provided an excellent opportunity for the Rovers to learn new skills, interact with participants from different units and gain valuable experience in the field of scouting.

Both participants actively took part in the camp activities and represented the college unit with enthusiasm and dedication. The camp proved to be a valuable learning experience and contributed to their overall development as responsible Rovers.
